Are signs that a blood-cleansing, tonic medicine is needed. So are tired, languid feelings, fits of indigestion and headache, loss of appetite, and general debility.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood-cleansing, tonic medicine. This statement is verified by the experience of thousands radically cured.

Accept no substitute.

"I have been for several years tormented with boils, blotches and pimples on my face. This spring I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and although I have used less than two bottles, the pimples are all gone, and my skin is free from biotches. I advise every one similarly afflicted to take Hood's Sarsaparillz."-Claude C. Denney, Healy, Kan.

"I am very thankful for Hood's Sarsaparills, and believe it to be the best medicine money can buy. I was broken out all over with pimples, but this medicine has taken them all away."-Edward Forter, Box 816, Edgewater,

"My brother has had pimples on his face, and in warm weather he would have bolls on his arms and body. He has been helped won-derfully by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have also taken it, and found it a great blood purifier." L. V. Burgett, Oakley, Ia.

"I had pimples on my face when I got a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, but since taking it they are gone. It is the best blood medicine I ever took."—Ruth McCloud, Madison, S. D.

"My face was covered with pimples last summer, and I went to my druggist to obtain a blood purifier. The clerk told me they sold more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than any other kind. I therefore procured a bottle and began taking the medicine. I was soon relieved of pimples."-Paul Goerner, Paige, Texas.

"For pimples and sores I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla to be an excellent medicine. I have taken it for cruptions and pimples, and it is the best medicine I can obtain to purify the blood." - Mrs. Lens Wallrich, Ashton, Iowa.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure, and keeps the promise.

It Has Improved the R. R. Rate Situation Says Mr. Fish.

Chicago, April 12.—President Stuyvesant Fish of the Illinois Central road has been watching closely the progress of the government in its attempt to compel the observance of published rates by the medium of injunctions. Fays the Record-Heraid. Mr. Fish is one of the big railway men who doesn't believe that the panacea for rate lifs lies in its galised poeling.

Regarding the injunction method the Record Heraid quotes President Fish as saying. The railway managers of this country, without an exception, will hall with delight any method which proves effective in maintaining rates. Heretofore averything which has been tried has been more or less a failure and we are alloudy the propession of the subject, but if such right does exist and the injunction, I can the subject, but if such right does exist and the injunction proves an effective measure, the railroids and the public shull have found what they have long been seeking.

He is Pleased With Chicago Reciprocity Convention.

Governor Stanley is more than pleased with the outcome of the reciprocity meeting in Chicago on Thursday, at which the National Reciprocity league was organized. It is the outcome of the little movement started by Governor Stanley a few weeks ago, when he called a few representative Topeka business men together and asked them what they thought of the advisibility of a Kansas organization to promote reciprocity.

"The meeting was a great success," raid Governor Stapley today. "There were about 75 delegates there, and the significant thing about it was that every one of them represented immense interests. They came from twelve states—New York, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Nebruska, Missouri, Kansas and Torna.

"We have decided upon no special plan of procedure as yet. I presume there will be a meeting of the directors in Chicago about May I, and the plan will be outlined at that time. I think we will endorse the idea of state organizations. The headquarters of the national league will be in Chicago." Governor Stanley is president of the organization and A. B. Hulit, of Topeka, is secretary.
